STATEMENT ON THE 2026 CONGRESSIONAL MAP

BATON ROUGE, La. —“An article in the Louisiana Illuminator, an online media outlet, regarding congressional maps published last week, and later shared by other news sources, advances a false narrative based on irresponsible and misleading legal speculation,” stated Trey Williams, Deputy Secretary of State for Communications and Policy. “The Louisiana Secretary of State’s Office was not contacted prior to its publication. The media made legal conclusions and attributed a timeline to the U.S. Supreme Court that the Court itself has not yet made. The Secretary of State will abide by the law and the orders of the Court.”
